South Shore Appeals to Board of Works for Permit to Build to Terminal Off Hydraulic Avenue.

Disinfection of the city hall—or certain departments of it—is among the orders of the board of public works at its meeting Tuesday morning, featuring the session, next in importance to the hearing of a proposal from the South Shore railway company, for permission to extend its track from the corner of Hydraulic and Lasalle av., about 100 feet north, to the company's new car barns. General Manager C. N. Wilcox, of Michigan City, and Attorney Lewis F. J. Meyers, of South Bend, appeared in behalf of the company.

After an examination of the blueprints, the board adjourned to the scene where it is proposed the tracks should be laid, to look over the ground first hand. A storm of protest is anticipated from residents in the vicinity of the barns. The matter of paving expense, incident to the recent double tracking on N. Main st., and Lasalle av., chargeable against both the South Shore and Northern Indiana roads, came up, but was put over until next week.

Hearing will be had on the Pennsylvania av. pavement proposition at a special meeting tonight, and a considerable turnout of residents of that vicinity is expected. Considerable feeling has arisen with regard to the matter.

REPORTS ABUSES OF HORSES TO TRUSTEE

Humane Officer Moore Investigates Sixty-nine Cases Reported During Month of March.

Sixty-nine cases are reported to have been investigated by Humane Officer Moore in South Bend during the past month. Owners of horses must take better care of their animals, as several cases were reported to the township trustee by the officer.

Every effort is being made to urge citizens to be more humane in caring for animals. At the Salvation Army Sunday school service, the officers of the words printed on them "Be Kind to Animals" were distributed. Special efforts are being made to protect song and migratory birds. Secretary Henry A. Pershing is preparing to give lectures with lantern slide illustrations to the school children on birds. It is the desire of the society to deliver the addresses in as many of the schools as possible. They will be given on request.

According to the report made by Officer Moore 17 animals were destroyed; five ugly dogs were ordered locked up; a number of cases of destitute families were investigated; cases of neglect of children were investigated, and a number of family troubles were settled by the department.

WIFE WENT TO DANCES

Husband Objected As She Went With Other Men.

William Riffert on Tuesday started divorce proceedings in the circuit court against his wife, Blanch Riffert, and also asked that the custody of the two children be given to him.

In his petition for a divorce Mr. Riffert sets forth that his wife was accustomed to going to dances with other men against his express wish and command and that she refused to stop this practice.

His wife was also accustomed to stay out late at night on such occasions as to go to dances with other men, and he alleges that she was in the habit of swearing at him and frequently cursed and swore at him and the children. DuComb and DuComb represent the plaintiff.

NEW BLIND TIGER CASE

Bottling Works Proprietor Held for Selling Without License.

Max Winkowski, 1613 Dunham st., will be tried Friday in city court on a charge of operating a blind tiger. The charge was instituted against him by Andy Trafka, 2105 Bruce st., one of his patrons. Trafka has been out of steady employment for some time, it is said, and has patronized several west end saloons. He brought the charge against Winkowski in city court Tuesday, alleging that he entered the Winkowski bottling works and purchased beer. Winkowski, it is said, has not a license for retail business.

The charges were denied by Winkowski, who alleged that Trafka took the beer from his bar against his orders, and that the arrest resulted from trouble between himself and west end saloon keepers which grew out of a quarrel over the "Casimirs" Polish Catholic church affair.
